Dear News Director:

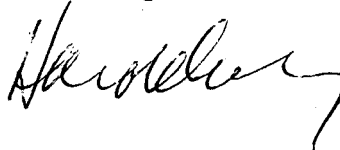

Your promo for the Delmarva Chicken Festival lacked one important bit of information for your audience: It is great fun - to observe and to be in.

We know. My wife and I, to the best of our knowledge, are the only wife-husband winners (see enclosed).

The chicken is fine - to eat, on which we also qualify as experts (see enclosed) - and as it is cooked by the contestants, where all can see and smell.

And even in friendly Maryland, there are no friendlier people than those on the Eastern Shore.

Sincerely,
